(a) whether Central Government has any plan to give financial assistance to the youths from rural, backward areas and hilly areas to encourage them in sports;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) whether Central Government is contemplating about building sports infrastructure including small stadium in rural, backward areas and hilly areas such as Darjeeling, North East, Himalayan region and Uttarakhand?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS (SHRI PRATIK PRAKASHBAPU PATIL): (a) to (c) There is no specific scheme for providing financial assistance to the youth from rural, backward areas and hilly areas to encourage them in sports but all schemes of the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports and Sports Authority of India are open to all youth of the country including those from rural, backward areas and hilly areas.

The Government has, for the first time, introduced a centrally sponsored scheme, Panchayat Yuva Krida aur Khel Abhiyan (PYKKA) with national coverage for the promotion of basic sports infrastructure and sports competitions in all village and block panchayats of the country including rural, backward and hilly areas. The Eleventh Five Year Plan outlay for this scheme, which was launched in the financial year 2008-09, is Rs. 1500 crore. The scheme envisages to cover around 2.50 lakh village panchayats and 6,400 block panchayats (including their equivalent units) in a phased manner over a period of 10 years at an annual coverage of 10%. The scheme is implemented through the State Governments/UTs.
